// OBSSESSION has developed smart and innovative solutions to display rugs to the final consumer.

We know that in our world of today, the consumer is led by his impulses and emotions.

By presenting our rugs visually attractive we make them more appealing for impulsive buying.

Our top of the line rug displays can be adjusted in dimension, capacity, signature and lighting in order to satisfy a diverse set of requirements and situations.

Irrespective of whether a single element such as floor stands, floor stands with under storage or rail systems are needed, all our concepts blend smoothly into any interior and provide valuable additional storage space.

Regardless of the size of the selling space—our experienced team will be happy to offer you competent advice all the way from the first enquiry over planning to implementation.

We can draw up an attractive complete offer including an initial rug collection, selected according to your particular wishes: transparent and reliable.
