UTO BALMORAL

Uto Balmoral it's not me. Uto Balmoral is a character, a project of the designer. The idea comes from a personal consideration about the concept of the "Designer as a griffe". The central thread of Uto's work is the simple necessity to communicate, to provoke, to generate something into the public. I don't believe in design, I believe in ideas.

Giampiero Romanò
is an art-designer from Milan.

His background is made among nails, hammers and paints.

His irony and visionary, along with technical knowledge of the materials and manufacturing skills of a yesteryear master craftsman, pushed him to create one-of-a-kind pieces such as spectacular wall mirrors.
